BEDS 12+

SIZE 500,000 m²

Description

Introducing a very special property for sale in Geneva, Switzerland. This 16th century estate was owned by H.M Queen Marie Jose - the last Queen of Italy.

Hidden in the Canton of Geneva, only 11km from the city, is this magnificent historic abode built in the 16th century. Beautiful domain of 50 hectares comprising of forest, gardens and orchards.

Main chateau has 1,500 m² of living space with 800m² as separate, newly remodeled guest and staff residences. There are many outbuildings including an orangery, a chapel, garden pavilions, a greenhouse, garden sheds, stables, garages and a heated swimming pool.

There is a separate farm on the property with over 1,000 m² of living space and two large barns. Hundreds of trees, roses and flowers have been planted and a new farmer is restructuring the vineyards and farmland.

This is indeed one of the most exclusive and extensive domains in the Canton of Geneva.
